Single Premium (incl. insurance tax) for events of up to 14 days	€ 480,--

The insurance covers the legal liability of the policyholder for bodily injury and property damage arising from the preparation and conduct of public air sports events to which spectators are invited.

Cover is granted only if all official licenses and authorizations have been obtained and only for the aviation part of the event. Insurance cover is not granted for support and sideline events, music performances, public bars and their infrastructural fixtures and fittings.

As a requirement, at least 10 participants in the event have to be insured under an AXA aircraft owner's liability insurance policy.
